Who are GWC's Kingdom Inspired Investors?

GWC's Kingdom Inspired Investors are individuals who have decided that one of the best ways to expand Christ's kingdom in Africa is to make resources available to train men and women to understand the Gospel accurately and explain it faithfully to others.

Recalling the wisdom adage that teaching a man to fish sustains him for a lifetime, Kingdom Inspired Investors take this one step further. They see that equipping God's people for faithful Gospel Ministry sustains the church for generations to come.

GWC's Kingdom Inspired Investors enjoy being part of a fellowship of like-minded supporters who:

- see the church in Africa as a priority concern
- understand the critical lack of Theologically trained pastors in Africa
- recognise that Church leadership requires specialised study of the Bible
- appreciate that GWC has, under God, been given a strategic opportunity to provide theological education that can shape the church in Africa.
- realise that Theological Education requires resources to make training available to those who will have the most Kingdom impact in their ministry
- embrace Christian principles of generosity and stewardship

Gospel Partnerships

“ Through God’s grace, Karen and I have been enthusiastic patrons of GWC for over a decade now. Looking back over this journey fills us with gratitude and encouragement as we see what the Lord has done through the ministry and influence of GWC – on the continent of Africa and beyond.

The campus has seen significant development which has increased the training capacity both in volume and spiritual depth. In addition creative strategies have been leveraged on the back of alumni innovation to enhance distance learning outreach strategies.

GWC alumni are key influencers for the gospel across African Bible Colleges.

We are excited to see what God will do next through the faithful theological training of men and women on the Southern tip of Africa. ”

Hugo and Karen Nelson

Kingdom Inspired Investors support GWC in several ways:

Undergird the College’s financial well-being via a pledge cycle of 3 years

Provide specific project support

Sponsor student bursaries

Donate to the GWC Ark Endowment for long-term sustainability for GWC’s work

Act as a GWC ambassador and grow GWC’s support network

Leave a legacy gift in your will

The Commitment of George Whitefield College

We recognise that the time, talents, material possessions and wealth entrusted to us by Kingdom Inspired Investors are given in service to God to accomplish the vision and mission of GWC.

GWC commits to providing our partners with regular updates on the impact of their investment. We inspire generosity through sharing accounts of the ministry fruits that flow from our GWC alumni.

Impact is shared via:

- WhatsApp
- Newsletters
- Prayer letters
- and at Kingdom Inspired Investor gatherings.

The Phand’ulwazi Knowledge Centre

This Knowledge Centre at GWC is intended to be a resource for the global church and to preserve Evangelical Reformed Theology.

The isiXhosa word “Phand’ulwazi” means to search for knowledge. This Knowledge Centre is overtly theological in nature. The undergirding assumption is that the Bible is a library of books where the many form a unified whole, and all 66 books have one message that is centred upon Christ.

This Knowledge Centre will lead the way in promoting a synthesis between books and electronics, between what a library has always been, and what it needs to become.

It will serve:

Students of GWC

Bible researchers and academics

Ministry workers and lecturers on sabbatical

Conference locally and internationally

The vision of building the Knowledge Centre can only be achieved through a shared dedication to preserving the Word of God and proclaiming it faithfully across the continent.

Taking the Gospel into Africa

“ The one thing that I am very grateful about for GWC is that it enabled me to be grounded in theology, how to interpret Scripture and how to prepare myself for ministry. For the four years, I was at GWC, I can never thank God enough for how I was prepared for my current ministry. As the Assistant Vicar, whose primary role is always to ensure that the spiritual state of my church is not backsliding or stagnant but always growing, I am always looking back through all the training that I was given while at GWC. And in this regard, my constant review of the Church history, Old and New Testament notes from GWC has enabled me to fulfill my duties well. ”

Rev. Grace Joram Kavuma – Assistant Vicar Namugongo Martyrs’ Church.
Namirembe Diocese, Church of Uganda.

Gospel roots for South Africa’s youth

“ In my 12 years of leading youth ministry, I have seen the fruit of my BTh studies at George Whitefield College. I believe young people and teens need sound Bible and Gospel teaching. The quality location, facilities, faculty and vibrant, diverse community created a stimulating space in which to learn and be equipped for my ministry alongside others who shared a desire to see the gospel go out to the ends of the earth. It was such a joy to study there. ”

Leighton Ronné – Youth Pastor, St James Church, Kenilworth, Cape Town.

Equipped to teach in South Sudan

“ I’m so grateful to sit under the teaching of well trained lecturers here at GWC who help me to understand God’s Word and prepare me for ministry. So now my heart looks back to the situation of the church in my country, where the majority of the ministers who are ordained and serving in the ministry have no theological training. It is my desire that after finishing my Master’s studies here, I’ll be able to go and train pastors at the church in South Sudan. ”

Seme Ludanga – GWC MTh

Equipped to serve in the local church

“ I stepped away from my 14-year Corporate career to embark on Theological Training at GWC. GWC profoundly shaped my heart and mind for Christian service; during my time here, God has cultivated within me a deep-seated appreciation for people and relationships, the ability to accommodate differing viewpoints with love and thoughtful critique and a deeper understanding and practice of holistic mission. My study of Biblical languages engages me more deeply with Scripture and assists me in being a faithful teacher of God’s Word as I volunteer in children’s ministry. The opportunity to immerse myself in God’s Word daily was amazing, leaving me in awe of Jesus! ”

Jade Smit – GWC BThHons

Should I become a Kingdom Inspired Investor?

- Do you desire that people in Africa hear the Gospel and be saved?
- Do you share GWC's conviction that sound Bible teaching is a vital component of effective evangelism and discipleship?

If your answer is yes to both the above then please contact Principal Mark Dickson, Vice-Principal Development Vuyani Sindo, and Executive Ambassador Alison Lee to see how you can become part of God's front line work in building His Kingdom in Africa and elsewhere in the world.
